

7. Link shopping/commercial districts, employment centers, and schools with residential areas to provide a safe and efficient means of travel for bicyclists and pedestrians.
8. Preserve and enhance the region's existing agricultural land use base.
9. Develop a system of bike and pedestrian paths.